BASKETBALL TEAM LOSES TWO GAMES.

Blue and Gold Team makes Good Showings Against Brown and N. Y. U.

The Trinity basketball team failed to register a victory in its two games during the past week. Considering the calibre of the teams which opposed it, the showing was very good indeed. Trinity fell before Brown at Providence on Wednesday, 23 to 17. Saturday night New York University completely outclassed the Blue and Gold hoopists. The final score was 49 to 20.

Brown Game.

Trinity started well and prevented Brown from registering a single basket from the floor during the first half of the contest. The home five came back strongly in the second half of the game and soon took the lead. Malloy, Fox and Miller played good basketball for the victors, while Nordlund, and Racine, who played his first game in a Trinity uniform against his former team mates, showed up to advantage.

N. Y. U. Wins.

Although Trinity gave promise of making things interesting for the visitors during the first five minutes of play, the speedy passing of the New York team and its strong defense soon turned the tide. Because of this defense the home team was compelled to stake its chances on long shots. Nordlund and Racine made spectacular scores. This method was not consistent enough to win. The game was fast and full of thrills. Mooney, the New York center, was the star of the contest, securing thirty-one points. Captain Nordlund was the star for Trinity.

The summary:

Trinity	New York University
Van Orden	RF Goeller
	Holman
Racine	LF Cann Cap't
Canner	C Mooney
	Biarce
Tansill	RG Baker
Nordlund Cap't	LG Delane
	Krain

Score—N. Y. U. 49, Trinity 20; goals from floor, Mooney 8, Cann 4, Delaney 3, Nordlund 2, Goeller 2, Canner 2, Racine; goals from fouls, Canner 10, Mooney 13; referee Brennan; timer Bruce; scorer, Reitemeyer; time of halves 20 minutes.

Examinations.

Examinations will begin on Wednesday, January 21, at 2 o'clock, and will last until Saturday, January 31, noon. Classes will be held as usual Wednesday morning. Two extra chapel cuts will be allowed per week during the examination period. That is to say, attendance at morning chapel will be required three days a week. Church attendance on Sunday will be required as usual. Examinations will begin at 9 a. m. and at 2 p. m.

Football Game with Wesleyan

RELATIONS WITH ANCIENT RIVALS RENEWED.
CONTEST AT MIDDLETOWN ON OCTOBER 9.

The Trinity-Wesleyan football game, which, after the Yale-Harvard game, is probably the football classic of New England, will be a feature of the 1920 gridiron card, under the terms of an agreement reached Thursday, January 15, 1920, by representatives of the two colleges. The game will be played at Middletown on October 9.

Professor Henry A. Perkins, C. A. Johnson and H. C. Pond, representing Trinity, and Judge E. L. Steele and Dr. Edgar Fauver, representing Wesleyan University, have agreed:

1st—That faculty rules of both institutions regarding the eligibility of students for athletic teams be strictly enforced.

2nd—That the universal 1-year rule, as applied to men coming from other colleges, will be observed, and that such cases will be investigated by the proper officials at each institution.

3rd—The other eligibility rules existing at each institution are recognized as in force and notice of any changes made in such rules will be sent by each college to the other.

JESTERS TO PRESENT WILDE'S "THE TRAITOR."

Play to be given in Junior Week.

For the opening of Junior Week on Saturday night, January 31, The Jesters will present "The Traitor", by Percival L. Wilde. The piece is in one act and deals with the British Army during the Boer War. A quartet under the direction of E. J. Cullem, '23, will render selections during the evening. There will be dancing after the play.

A number of men, who are not yet members of The Jesters, will be given parts in the play to try them out for the play to be given at Parsons' Theatre later in the year. Then a very large cast will be needed.

Those in the cast of "The Traitor" are Breslin, Mitchel, Newsome, Tenney, Lyons, Buffington, Macauley, Gesner and Wallen.

Religious Census.

The religious census of the college for the academic year, 1919-20, shows the following result:

Total enrollment 223.
Episcopalian,	98 44%
Roman Catholic,	36 16%
Congregational,	34 15%
Hebrew,	24 10%
Presbyterian,	9 4%
Methodist,	7 3%
Lutheran,	4 2%
Baptist,	2
Christian Science,	1
Dutch Reformed,	1
Greek,	1

W. G. N. Mitchell, '16, and W. B. Pressey, '15, are instructors of English at Dartmouth. The former's address is Webster Terrace, Hanover, N. H., while the latter's is 7 Pleasant Street, Hanover, N. H.

FACULTY ADVISOR SYSTEM INSTITUTED HERE.

New Plan will Take Effect in Second Semester.

Trinity will have the faculty advisor system with the beginning of the second semester, according to an announcement made last week by Acting President Henry A. Perkins. Under this system the student body will be divided up into groups of from twelve to fifteen each and to every group a member of the faculty will be assigned as advisor. The faculty member, however, will be more than an advisor. It will be his duty to make himself the friend of every student in his group. The system, when in operation, is expected to go a long way toward breaking down the traditional barriers between professors and students.

ON THE CAMPUS.

Dallas Summerfield Squire, of the class of 1915, has been spending a few days in this city.

Professor Edward F. Humphrey spoke before the community welfare department of the Center Church women at Center Church House on Friday afternoon at 3 o'clock, on "Democracy and Education."

Mrs. H. M. Dadourian, wife of Professor H. M. Dadourian, of the Physics Department, has recently become director of the bureau of information of the Connecticut Woman's Suffrage Association. Mrs. Dadourian's office is at suffrage headquarters, 55 Pratt Street, where she plans to keep on file all kinds of information of a civic and social nature, which will be of interest to women.

Columbia University has enrolled over 20,000 students for this year. The majority of these have been admitted under the new system of psychological tests.

S. D. C. TAKES EIGHT MEN FROM 1922.

Clapp President and Ahern Secretary of New Delegation.

The Sophomore Dining Club elected eight men this year from the class of 1922. The new men were Reynolds, Nordlund, Clapp, Tansill, Ahern, Racine, Puels and Mohnkern. At a meeting of the new men, held last Thursday night, Clapp was elected president and Ahern secretary.

Reynolds is now president of the sophomore class. He was vice-president during his freshman year and won his letter in baseball last year, alternating with Shepard in the box. He is a member of Delta Phi.

Tansill was on the baseball squad last spring. He played end on the football team this year and is on the basketball team. He was president of the freshman class last year and was chairman of the sophomore "hop" committee. He is a member of Delta Kappa Epsilon.

Racine won his letter in baseball and would have probably made the varsity football team had it not been for injuries. He is playing on the basketball team this year. Racine was a member of the sophomore "hop" committee and is a member of Alpha Tau Kappa.

Nordlund caught for last year's baseball team. He played on the football team and is captain of the basketball team. He is a member of Sigma Nu.

Clapp is also a member of Sigma Nu. He was the only freshman to win his letter in track last spring, running the mile and two-mile. He is Holland scholar for his class and a member of the "Freshman Bible" staff.

Ahern has been secretary-treasurer of the class since he entered college. He was on the football squad and is a member of Phi Gamma Delta.

Mohnkern was a member of the football squad last fall. He is manager of the basketball team this year and it was largely due to his efforts that the college has a team now. He is a member of Delta Kappa Epsilon.

Puels was on the football squad last fall. He is assistant manager of baseball. He is a member of the college choir, of the Y. M. C. A. cabinet and of the "Freshman Bible" staff. He was in the cast of The Jesters' play last year and is business manager of the organization this year. He is circulation manager of "The Tripod" and a member of Delta Kappa Epsilon.

Harvard Medical School has 300 students and 263 instructors, and thus every class contains but one or two students. The large number of teachers is possible, because 91 receive no salary and the rest an average of $200 per year.

The results of the Trinity College vote on the Intercollegiate Treaty Referendum is as follows:

Faculty:

Fourth Proposition..... 3

Students:

First Proposition..... 14

Second Proposition..... 5

Third Proposition..... 17

Fourth Proposition..... 82

Number of Faculty voting..... 3

Number of Students voting....118

The Propositions were:

1—I favor the ratification of the league and treaty without reservations or amendments.

2—I am opposed to the ratification of the league and treaty in any form.

3—I favor ratification of the treaty, but only with the Lodge reservations.

4—I favor a compromise between the Lodge and the Democratic reservations, in order to facilitate the ratification of the treaty.

TRINITY-WESLEYAN.

It is gratifying to know that relations between Trinity and Wesleyan have again been resumed and that a football game will be played next fall. The break did not help Trinity. We venture to say that it did not help Wesleyan.

For years the two institutions have been keen rivals. The winning of the football contest, played each fall, meant a great deal to both contending elevens. In fact it meant more than any other game.

Trinity men of former years can look back to contests in the past with a feeling of pride. No matter how badly a team played throughout the entire season, when the annual game came, Trinity players were transformed. They played and fought as if they were superhuman.

When the whistle blows October 9, Trinity will be there. Her eleven will be ready to play as in former years. Her players will try their best to begin the new epoch in the friendly relations between the two institutions, in the correct and proper way, by winning. Let peace reign until that day.

A WORTHY EXAMPLE.

It is with a feeling of sincere regret that "The Tripod" records the death of one of Trinity's distinguished alumni, Dr. Edwin O. Bolles. It is possible to say much in praise of him. We shall not do so, for we think a man is known by his work. Dr. Bolles' career will ever stand as a living memorial to his memory.

Still we desire to call attention to one fact. In 1912, Dr. Bolles became totally blind. He pursued his work as professor and chaplain at Tufts College until the time of his death. He gave his lectures and performed his duties as formerly. Several years of work under such a handicap was a fitting ending to the man's life work.

From the lives of many alumni Trinity students may easily draw lessons. These men serve as inspirations for us who are being educated in the institution which equipped them for their work. Such is true in this case. As we think of the later years of Dr. Bolles' life, we feel proud that he was and we are members of the same college. It means much to be a Trinity man.

ELIGIBILITY RULES.

In the text of the agreement with Wesleyan, mention was made of the eligibility rules of the two colleges. During the past few years there has been more or less uncertainty as to just what the eligibility rules at Trinity were. In order to clear up this vagueness the rules now in force are given below.

From and after January 1, 1916, subject to the rules of the Faculty, any regular undergraduate student in good standing shall be eligible to represent the college in intercollegiate athletics with the following exceptions.

No student shall be eligible as above who is shown by the Official Lists to have been a member of a baseball team belonging to a classified league or association under the so-called National Association of Baseball Leagues.

No student shall be eligible as above who has played football or basketball as a member of a paid team, or competed in track athletics for pay or for cash prizes during an academic year, while a student at Trinity College.

No student shall be eligible as above who has competed in any branch of athletics under an assumed name since his registration as a student of Trinity College.

No student shall be eligible as above who has represented another college or university in intercollegiate athletics until he shall have been a regular student at Trinity College for at least one full college year after so representing such other college or university.

No student shall be eligible as above, who has already represented either Trinity or any other college in intercollegiate athletics during an aggregate period of four college years.

These exceptions shall not, however, apply to present members of the classes of 1916, 1917, 1918 and 1919, on account of any past act.

No student shall be eligible for the varsity football team who has reached the age of 26 years.

If, at some future time, the total number of regular undergraduate students, enrolled at Trinity, equals or exceeds three hundred and fifty (350), then and after that time no one shall be eligible to represent the college or varsity teams until he shall have been a regular student at Trinity for a full college year.

OBITUARY.

Dr. Edwin C. Bolles.

Dr. Edwin Cortland Bolles, for the last twenty years, professor of history at Tufts College and known as "The College Chaplain", died at his home in Medford, Mass., a week ago Sunday. He was born in 1836 and was graduated from Trinity College in 1855. During the Civil War Dr. Bolles was chaplain of a Maine regiment and, for a few years before the war, resided in New Orleans, where he took a prominent part in events that immediately preceded the outbreak of the armed conflict. He was the friend of many who were leaders in both the north and south a half century ago. Subsequently he held pastorates in the Universalist ministry at Portland, Me., Salem and New York. At one time he was a member of the faculty of St. Lawrence University, Canton, N. Y. He is survived by a daughter.

DeForest Hicks.

DeForest Hicks, a graduate in the Class of 1896, died suddenly of heart failure in the Pennsylvania Railroad Station, in New York City, December 31, 1919, while on his way to Atlantic City for a rest during his convalescence from an attack of pneumonia.

He was born at Summit, N. J., October 30, 1875, the son of William Cleveland and Emily Norwood (DeForest) Hicks. His father was a graduate of Trinity College in the Class of 1848 and was a lecturer at the college from 1862 to 1874.

Mr. Hicks prepared for college at St. Paul's School, Concord, N. H., and entered Trinity in the fall of 1892. He was graduated with the degree of B. A. in 1896. While at college he was a member of the track team for several years, one of the editors of "The Tablet" from 1893 and 1894; managing editor from 1894 to 1896; and an associate editor of two books "Trinity Sketches" and "Trinity Verse," published by the undergraduates. For four years he was a member of the Mandolin Club and of the Banjo Club.

After graduation he was a master at St. Paul's School, Concord, N. H., for one year and spent the next year as a tutor at Vineyard Haven, Mass. In 1898 he entered the employ of the Western Electric Company, New York City, where he remained as chief clerk until 1902, when he became manager of the Philadelphia office. In 1904 he was appointed assistant treasurer of the company. Shortly afterwards he entered the bond business and in December, 1906, formed the brokerage firm of Coggeshall and Hicks, the senior partner of which was a classmate of his in college.

He married, October 5, 1909, at Athens, Ga., Miss Nancy Benedict of that city, the daughter of Dr. Samuel Caldwell and Anne (Bloomfield) Benedict.

Mr. Hicks was President of the St. Nicholas Club of New York City, a member of the Seawanhaka-Corinthian Yacht Club, the Church Club, the Baltusrol Golf Club, the Society of Colonial Wars, and the Beta Beta Chapter of Psi Upsilon and was Treasurer of the Peninsula Telephone Company.

His wife, a brother, the Reverend William C. Hicks, '91, and a nephew, William C. Hicks, Jr., now in college, a member of the Class of 1921, survive him.

His personality, integrity of character and uprightness commanded the love and respect of all, during his college career and in after life.

Eben Greenough Scott.

"The Tripod" has just received an announcement of the death of Eben Greenough Scott, who, for some time, was a member of the Class of 1857.

He was born at Wilkes-Barre, June 15, 1836, the son of William Boyce and Susan Israel (Greenough) Scott. Mr. Scott prepared for college at the Episcopal High School, Va., and also the Jones School at Bridgeport, Conn. He entered Trinity as a Junior, and at the end of the year entered Yale University, where he was graduated with the degree of A.B. in 1858. He received the degree of A.M. from Yale University in 1863. After leaving college he took up the study of law, which profession he followed during his life. He married at Philadelphia, February 12, 1863, Miss Elizabeth Woodward of Wilkes-Barre, the daughter of the Honorable George W. and Sarah Elizabeth (Trott) Woodward.

During the Civil War Mr. Scott was a first lieutenant in Battery C, Fifth Artillery. In addition to his practice in the law he was a writer of many books and magazine articles, among which are Interstate Law of Pennsylvania; Development of Constitutional Liberty; Reconstruction During the Civil War; also articles and criticisms in the "Atlantic Monthly", and other magazines.

The Reverend George McClellan Fiske, D.D., '70, married a cousin of Mr. Scott's. Mr. Scott was a member of the I. K. A. Fraternity.

INTERCOLLEGIATES.

A drive to obtain an endowment fund of a million dollars from the alumni of Rochester University has been started.

All Juniors and Seniors of the School of Pharmacy of the University of Buffalo have been suspended and fined for having hazed a member of the Freshman class.

Hamilton has a total enrollment of 295, of which 103 are Freshmen.

Fifteen Chinese students have been enrolled at Syracuse University, including one professor and one girl. After the completion of their courses, they will return to China to act as professors in the American missionary colleges.

Rochester's radio-telegraph installation is going forward steadily, and the University will soon be able to receive messages from the high power stations in France, Italy, Germany and England.
